NEW INDUSTRIAL ERA APPEARS TO BE IN SIGHT IN RUSHVILLE

Three Local Concerns Hope to Interest Local Investors in Their Business.

OFFERING PREFERRED STOCK

That of Arbuckle & Co., Rushville
Furniture Co. and Rushville Glove
Co. is on Market.

IT IS ALL EXEMPT FROM TAXES

It Will Pay Six Per Cent; Two Are Redeemable in 3 Years and Other in 5.

It appears that the dawn of a new industrial era in Rushville is in sight if a successful sale of the preferred stock of three home industries can be made. If the monied people of Rushville and Rush county can be educated to buy stock in home concerns, stock which will net a better profit than any foreign investment, the future success of other industries home as well as foreign, is evidently assured.

Three Rushville institutions, financed and organized by Rushville and Rush county capitalists, now are offering preferred stock to the people of the city and county. They are Arbuckle & Company, operators of a foundry in Second street, near the Pennsylvania depot; the Rushville Furniture Company which was organized by local men recently and which has expended nearly fifty thousand dollars in building a modern and up-to-date factory and which is preparing to turn the wheels soon, and the Rushville Glove Company, located near the I. & C. power house, and whose stockholders are all local men.

The best part about the local stock now on the market is that it is non-taxable. It is wholly exempt from taxation. Other stock, true enough, such as county and city bonds, is exempt from taxation, but little of it pays as much as the local concerns offer. They guarantee a six per cent interest payment, while few county bonds or other ordinary investments pay more than four or four and a half per cent.

While Rush county and Rushville investors in buying the stock of the three concerns, are not only helping themselves by receiving good interest for their money, they are assisting local concerns to progress. In progressing they make Rushville a better city; in progressing they have more business and bring more money into local channels.

The three stock propositions have the stamp of approval of all four banks of the city. The heads of the financial institutions have assured the agent who is handling the stock that they will recommend it to prospective investors who come to them for advice. This will assist much in the sale of the stock, representatives of the three concerns say.

It is the intent of the three local industrial institutions to attempt, in the sale of this preferred stock now being offered, to educate the people to invest their money in home industries. They would like for Rush county and Rushville investors to risk their money once and learn that their neighbors are not thieves.

These three concerns realize that if the ice is once broken, so to speak, there will be no trouble in the future in financing home industries. They declare that one year of operation after a goodly amount of preferred stock has been placed in the hands of local investors, will work wonders in the minds of local people in regard to the ownership of stock in Rushville concerns. They figure that investors will be so pleased with their investment when they receive their check for their dividends at the end of the year, that they will beg for more of the stock and the financing of local industries, which has always been a vexing question here, will be solved.

No better men in Rushville or Rush county could probably be put behind the three institutions which are asking the people of the city and county to buy their preferred stock. They are all men who have spent their life in Rushville; they are men who have suffered their misfortunes and won their successes in Rushville, and they are men who appeal to their neighbors to buy their stock and not only benefit themselves, but benefit Rushville and its industries.

It is considered a safe estimate by conservative men, who have lived in Rushville all their lives and who have watched the trend of investments by the moneyed people, that at least $250,000 of local capital is invested in foreign concerns. This is indeed a deplorable state of affairs, when Rushville men, who are known by everyone and whose records are clean, can go out and sell their stock at once.

Consider that that much local capital is invested in foreign concerns. How many of those investors know the stability of the institutions in which they have intrusted their money? That is a question which the stockholders of the local concerns ask. How many of the local investors in foreign concerns know the institutions in which their money is invested as well as they know the men behind the local institutions which are requesting that they buy their stock, the best which is to be had.

An instance is cited of a Rush county farmer, who the other day bought all of the bonds issued on a public building in a certain Indiana city. Those bonds are exempt from taxation, to be sure, but they will not pay more than four per cent. And the investor has not as much assurance that the bonds are a safe investment as he has that the local stock is a safe investment.

Yet examples of this kind are happening in Rushville almost every day. Rush county farmers and Rushville people who get a little surplus money are sinking it in foreign concerns right along with promises of big dividends. They generally fail. Others are placing their money in concerns which are not as safe and which do not offer as much interest as do the local concerns.

The local institutions feel that they can not progress and make money without borrowing money. The banks are limited in the amounts they loan. They are working on the theory that they will never thrive and make great strides forward if they do not improve and expand their business with other people's money.

The preferred stock sale is more in the nature of a loan than anything else. For instance, the Rushville Glove Company asks a prospective investor to loan it any amount of money he deems fit for a period of three years. The company agrees to pay six per cent interest on that loan, which is guaranteed to the investor with the shares of preferred stock. The three institutions are working on the theory that they can not build up their business substantially without borrowing money.

The Rushville Furniture Company's stock is offered at par and is redeemable in five years. Arbuckle & Co.'s stock is being sold at par and may be redeemed in three years. The Rushville Glove Company's stock is redeemable in three years. All of

GET READY! COLD IS COMING AGAIN

Weather Bureau Predicts Temperature Will Drop Thirty Degrees
by Tomorrow Night.

RAIN WILL CHANGE TO SNOW

Lowering Temperature is Expected to Check Fast Rising Streams—
Friday to be Clear.

Just listen to this: another cold wave is headed toward Indiana and it is liable to put in an appearance any time tomorrow or tomorrow night. The temperature is expected to fall to ten degrees above zero by tomorrow night.

The weather bureau predicts that the rain will turn to snow by tonight some time. This means, of course, that the mercury will begin falling this evening. Tomorrow will be clear, according to the weather man, and the cold will not begin in earnest until then.

The cold is expected to accomplish some good, however. It will check the rapid rise of the rivers, all over the State. Even in a river as small as Flatrock the sudden rise has been very noticeable. The rain and sudden change in temperature, causing the snow to melt, has caused the rivers to swell.

The temperature last night and today was the highest it has been here for weeks. The thermometers recorded as high as forty degrees above zero. With the change of temperature for the better came more gas and people are no longer suffering from gas shortage. It is plentiful when least needed.

The trouble is headed toward Indiana from the northwest. In North Dakota at 7 o'clock there were temperatures ranging from 18 to 22 below zero, and the temperatures had been falling during the preceding twenty-four hours west of the Mississippi river. East of the Mississippi river, however, there had been rises in temperatures during the corresponding period.

Snow was falling at Chicago, Du-buque and Green Bay, and sleet was falling at Grand Rapids and at Springfield, Mo. West of the Mississippi river the zero temperatures extended into Minnesota, and the freezing temperatures extended as far south as Oklahoma and northern Texas and New Mexico.

MOTHER SERIOUSLY HURT

Mrs. George E. Wise Called to Indianapolis by Accident.

Mrs. George E. Wise of 221 West Fifth street was called to Indianapolis today by an accident which befell her mother at her home there. According to information received by Mrs. Wise, her mother slipped and fell down the cellar stairs at her home last evening and suffered very serious injuries. The impression was conveyed to Mrs. Wise that the aged woman was probably fatally injured and would never recover.

ORGANIZED BOY SCOUTS.

Dr. U. S. Clutton, who will address the "Boys Big Meeting" next Sunday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church is an expert in the line of boys work and has been very successful in organizing the "Boys Scouts" in Indianapolis. His lecture on "Habit" which he illustrates by sleight-of-hand, is very highly recommended and you should not miss hearing it.

AUDITOR MAY BE THE SEALER ALSO

State Commissioner of Weights and Measures Calls Attention to This in Circular Letter.

NO SEALER APPOINTED HERE

It is Duty of Commissioners to Act
According to Statute of Last Legislature.

H. E. Barnard, State commissioner of weights and measures, has sent circular letters to boards of county commissioners and county auditors, calling attention to the advisability of each county selecting a sealer of weights and measures, as provided by an act of the recent general assembly, according to last night's Indianapolis News.

Where no sealer is named, the work prescribed by the law is to be done by the county auditor. County Auditor Jesse Stone knows nothing of the duties involved in holding down such an office, and since the law is mandatory, will doubtless have to perform the duties of the office, nevertheless.

The county commissioners have never named a county sealer of weights and measures as provided in a statute passed by the last legislature. It is not known that they have ever considered the appointment of such an official. In a recent notice H. E. Barnard announced it was the duty of the auditor to appoint a sealer if the commissioners failed to act.

Mr. Barnard is arranging to meet all sealers next month, when a general program relative to their duties will be carried out.

SMALL BLAZE AT M'ALLISTER HOME

"Jinx" Seems to Follow Chief of Police—Second Fire Within Ten Days.

ANOTHER DEFECTIVE FLUE

A "jinx" evidently is following Chief of Police McAllister. His troubles seem to come in one continuous "package." This morning the fire department was called to his home in the Study property in North Harrison street to extinguish a small blaze caused by a defective flue in the kitchen. The fire was discovered before much headway had been made and the loss is not very great. Mr. McAllister had only moved into the property recently and it was the second blaze at his home within the past ten days. The fire this morning was put out without throwing any water other than from a bucket brigade. So accustomed has the McAllister family become to fires that they refuse to get excited.

EARL WOOD DIES.

Earl Woods, age twenty-two, who was stricken suddenly with cerebral meningitis Monday afternoon, died this afternoon at three o'clock at his home at 538 North Sexton street. No funeral arrangements are made yet. Woods was an Odd Fellow.

It was rumored today that Rushville coal dealers were short on soft coal and that the city faced a famine on this particular kind of coal. But this is not true as all the dealers say they have plenty of soft coal and there is no danger of a famine.

GAMBLING INTERVIEW CAUSES SQUABBLE AMONG OFFICIALS

CAUSES A VARIED
LOT OF COMMENT

Prosecutor Dennis O'Neil's Interview is Labeled as Mere Talk by Some Persons.

OTHERS TAKE IT SERIOUSLY

One Former Official Says Officers
Have Not Been Given Proper Moral Support in Past.

The chief topic of conversation for the last few days has been the interview given out by Attorney Dennis O'Neil Tuesday, in which he vowed to clean Rushville of one of its vices, namely gambling. Many people have been disposed to take the prosecutor's avowed intentions seriously while others have labeled it as mere talk.

The interview of the prosecutor has opened some people's eyes, however, and they have expressed themselves as realizing that such conditions as pointed out by the prosecutor do exist. They have existed here for years, as one man pointed out yesterday, and every marshal who has attempted to remedy the condition, has finally thrown up the job as a bad one, because he failed to receive the proper moral support.

Donald Smith, who acted as Dennis O'Neil's deputy while he was in Shelbyville in the Tindall murder trial and taking treatment for his malady at West Baden, was seen yesterday but refused to make any direct statement as to whether or not he had noted such conditions as portrayed by the prosecutor, while he was in charge of the office.

He said that he really was not an officer at the time and promised the prosecutor he would attend to whatever duties came up while he (O'Neil) was away. He said that he acted as prosecutor in Mr. O'Neil's absence but that he did not attempt to stir up anything or to attend to any duties other than those necessary as he did not believe it his place.

Another local Democrat, who has held office, but who refused to allow his name to be used in this connection, was interviewed yesterday.

He pointed out that people generally do not appreciate the duties of a prosecutor and what he has to contend with. This man declared that nothing of the sort as outlined in the proposed campaign of the prosecutor could be accomplished here without all of the agencies of the law working in perfect accord.

He declared that anyone acquainted with the "red light" district or with conditions about the city knew well that gambling is being carried on openly and above board here. He said such conditions had existed for thirty years.

He prescribed a lot of remedies. He said in the first place a city marshal and his force or a prosecutor is almost helpless without the assistance of the people of the city. Their moral support, he said, is vitally essential to the success of such a movement.

Again he asserted that it was possible for a police force to prevent gambling. This man said a policeman with a tin badge as big as a nickel might prevent gambling if he made professionals in this business know that he meant business and was ready to haul them into court whenever an offender was caught red

STANDS PAT ON HIS POSITION

Prosecutor Dennis O'Neil Flays Mc-Allister-Barrett Ordinance Calling
it a Booby Affair.

REPLIES TO INSINUATIONS

States That Grand Jury Investigated Commercial Block Raid—Has Evidence of Gambling.

The war, or whatever it is between Prosecutor O'Neil and the police goes merrily on and it is the opinion of the prosecutor that his threats to "clean-up" the city are having the desired effects and that the city may be cleaned of gambling without a single arrest.

The police have intimated that the State's attorney would not prosecute after they made the arrest and point to the Commercial block raid as a criterion. In reply to this Mr. O'Neil says the case was brought before the grand jury and all the evidence was heard. "That case was fairly tried before the grand jury at the September term," said Mr. O'Neil, "and what the grand jury did is a matter that can not be told by me. I refuse to try my cases in the newspapers. The city officials know full well that every possible thing was done to prove that case. The law says the grand jury shall not disclose the evidence and I am likewise bound as are the officials of the circuit court. What has been done the police do not know or have a right to know until the case comes to trial.

"The city police say, 'behold the beer cases!' I say unto them, that any school boy that had anything other than lionized dressing for brains would guess the first time that though this beer has been retained for almost a year and not destroyed, was held for the purpose of evidence in the future."

Continuing Mr. O'Neil said: "The city attorney thinks it a wonderful coincidence that I should wake up and do things after the passage of that booby Mc-Allister-Barrett ordinance. All attorneys knowing any law at all know that when a city ordinance conflicts with a State law, the ordinance is void. There are State laws covering vagrancy, gambling, visiting gambling rooms, etc., therefore the booby ordinance is not worth the paper it is written on.

"Let me be specific and illustrate a case. Suppose the chief of police has a man arrested for gambling and he goes to the city attorney and swears out the affidavit, the case to be tried before Mayor Black. The city attorney is a self-appointed prosecutor. The defendant is found guilty and appeals to the circuit court where the case is placed on the criminal docket. Now here is where I come in. The prosecuting attorney of the sixteenth judicial district of which Rush county is a part and who is elected by a majority of the votes of the people in the district, while with the grand jury of the county investigating crimes, felonies and other things, returns a true bill charging the same offense against the same individual as tried in the mayor's court. Now who would have the standing in court? Who would be the usurper of power? The prosecuting attorney or the city solicitor? But why contravert farther with a three-ball attorney."

(1.) Verses 1-2—Who were Caesar Augustus, and Cyrenius?

(2.) Verses 3-4—What was the political or national status of the Jews at this time?

(5.) Verses 5-6—What would be a correct designation of a man who does not willingly pay his taxes?

(6.) Why were Joseph and Mary not to be censured, for travelling abroad at such a momentous and critical time?

(7.) Verse 7—Do we need to do anything special, except doing our every day duty, to help God bring to pass at the exact time and place whatever he has planned for us? Give your reasons.

(8.) Why was it the plan of God that Jesus should be born in Bethlehem in a stable, and cradled in a manger?

(9.) Does God have more interest in the masses or the classes, that is in the poor or the rich?

(10.) How do you account for it that no person gave up his room in the inn, and that no private citizen offered hospitality to a woman of such respectability, in such a serious condition?

(11.) Verses 8-10—Which method assures us of the more Divine revelations and why, specifically seeking them, or devoutly attending to our every day duties?

(12.) May any godly person in these days ever expect to be visited by an angel?

(13.) Why is there never any reason to fear, either a natural or a supernatural revelation, if we are serving God?

(14.) Verses 11-12—Why was the birth of Jesus good tidings to the shepherds and to all men?

(15.) Does wealth, or social position, or education, make people more sensitive to the supernatural, than the opposites of these things?

(16.) Verses 13-14—Did this host of angels come at this moment, or were they already there and the eyes of the shepherds "suddenly" opened, and their ears attuned, to see and hear them?

(17.) What if any reason is there to believe that we are constantly surrounded with a host of angels?

(18.) Verses 15-16—How much hurt or help would this revelation have been to the shepherds, if they had gone to Bethlehem to see for themselves?

(19.) Verses 17-18—How much obligation rests upon Christians, to make Jesus known to the world?

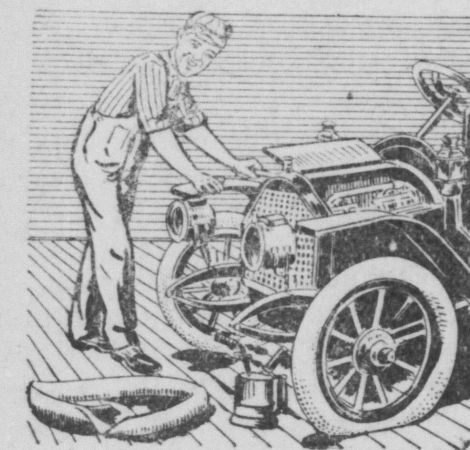

(20.) Verses 19-20—How is it that when we find out the facts concerning Jesus, that our hearts are so mightily stirred? (This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

SENSATIONS ARE EXPECTED SOON

Trial of Packers Reaching Interesting Stage.

GOVERNMENT IS SATISFIED

Although the Progress of the Prosecution Has Been Laborious, the Witnesses Have Been Careful Even to the Point of Reluctance, Other Witnesses Are Expected to Give a Sensational Turn to Affairs.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Henry A. Timmons, chief accountant for Morris & Co., put in his third day on the witness stand in the United States court here yesterday when the attorneys for the government continued their fire on the ten indicted packers on trial. At the close of the day he was tendered to the defense for cross-examination.

Attorney M. W. Borders for the Morris interests conducted the examination. This gave the government side a chance for re-direct examination. Its progress was considered entirely satisfactory when court adjourned last evening. Every witness thus far called has been careful even to the degree of reluctance. But the government attorneys have not stopped boring for facts and figures. The progress of the prosecution has been laborious, although sensations are expected in a few days, when other witnesses are called. Among them is an operative for the department of justice. This man is said to have been in the employ of the packers for years before he went to the federal employ. His appearance is anxiously awaited by both sides.

FATAL WRECK

Two Trolley Cars Come Together on the Martinsville Line.

Martinsville, Ind., Jan. 18.—In a head-on collision between a limited car and a work train of the Indianapolis & Martinsville traction line about four miles north of Martinsville, Thomas Weddel, section foreman of the line, of Martinsville, was killed and three were badly injured and several others severely bruised, shaken up and scratched.

The seriously injured: Merle Apple, conductor work train, crushed about head and body; Charles Caldwell, motorman limited car, severely bruised; H. E. Hafner, traveling salesman, Indianapolis, both legs and both arms broken.

Cars Were Demolished.

Both the limited car and the work train were almost totally demolished. The passenger coach cut the cabin from the first car of the work train as if it had been sheared with a knife, and the platform and trucks of the work train car telescoped the passenger car for half its length. The work train was loaded with heavy steel rails and these were catapulted through the coach for three-quarters of its length. Those who inspected the wreck, with its tangle of splintered timbers, twisted trucks and steel rails, wondered how any escaped.

Thomas Weddel, the section foreman, met his death by being crushed beneath an avalanche of wooden ties that piled upon him when the crash came. Weddel, in charge of a gang of a dozen workmen, was riding on the trailer. He had no warning of the impending collision and was buried beneath the ties in an instant.

INCONOCLAST ABROAD

Fruitless Attempt Made to Blow Up Famous Ancient Baptistery.

Pisa, Jan. 18.—A determined attempt was made to blow up the famous baptistry which was begun in 1153 and not completed till 1278. The building, which is entirely of marble, is opposite the famous cathedral and adjacent to the leaning tower. Two watchmen in making their rounds noticed smoke coming from underneath the door of the baptistry. An investigation followed and a burning fuse was discovered attached to a contrivance on the door panels. The inside of this contrivance, as subsequently discovered, was filled with gunpowder and the outside had been soaked in kerosene.

The watchmen acted quickly and turned on a stream of water, which extinguished the burning fuse. This averted not only the probable destruction of the baptistry, but disaster to the marble cathedral and the leaning tower. The police have discovered no clue to the vandals.

Deadlock in Woolen Strike.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 18.—There has been no change for the better in the woolen strike situation. If anything, the outlook is worse than at any time since the trouble began. All efforts at having the strike settled by arbitration have ceased, as neither the owners or the disgruntled operatives will submit their differences to the state board.

Detective on Trial.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 18.—The trial of William Wilson, a detective on the local force, charged with the murder of William J. Walters of Paducah, Ky., on Sunday, Nov. 3, in this city, is in progress in the circuit court here. Wilson pleads self-defense.

DEATH CLEARS UP A MYSTERY

William Eastland Had Been Missing Since Civil War.

JUST REPORTED DEAD IN TEXAS

Not Since He Left Valparaiso With His Regiment in 1861 Had Eastland Been Heard From at His Old Home, and He Had Long Been Regarded as Dead—Word From Houston Notes His Recent Death at That Place.

Valparaiso, Ind., Jan. 18.—By the application in this city of Attorney A. Reynolds of Houston, Tex., for information concerning Eastland's relatives, mystery surrounding the disappearance of William Eastland, who enlisted here in 1861 for the civil war, went south with his company and was never thereafter heard from has been cleared. Eastland was found dead in a chair at Houston, Dec. 23, 1911. The only clue to his family was the signature on his army papers dated from this city. Eastland's estate is worth between $5,000 and $10,000. Eastland had long been believed dead. He was a merchant at Houston.

PROMPT ACTION

On Part of Tower Man Saves Limited From Possible Disaster.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 18.—The prompt action of a tower operator probably saved the Twentieth Century limited, the eighteen-hour New York to Chicago train on the Lake Shore, from derailment. As the train passed his tower the operator noticed a hot box on one of the coaches burning brightly. He called the operator at Lydick, who threw the block signal against the train just as it came into sight. The long train was brought to a sudden stop, and passengers were jostled from their seats. The wheel where the box was burning was torn off and rolled down the embankment. The car did not catch fire, but was left standing at Lydick after the passengers had been taken into other coaches.

PRECARIOUS SEAT

Dearborn County Man Rides a Mad Bull to Death.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Jan. 18.—Russell J. Nowlin, aged twenty-five, manager of the Pella stock farm in Miller township, was attacked by an enraged bull. Nowlin was tossed high in the air by the maddened animal and alighted astride its back. He managed to retain his position while the bull pitched, bucked and plunged to throw him off until it sank exhausted in the snow and died. A veterinarian who examined the dead animal stated that the bull died of hydrophobia. Nowlin was not seriously injured.

Sudden Death Followed Arrest.

Owensville, Ind., Jan. 18.—Leslie C. Hunter, a young business man of this city, was arrested at his home here on a charge of forgery filed by the American National bank of Princeton. Hunter is said to have signed the name of Harry Pollard to a promissory note for $2,500. Hunter was formerly a teacher in the local schools. Following his arrest he was seized with a sudden illness and died before medical aid could arrive. His death is believed to be due to suicidal poisoning, and the coroner is investigating.

Editors Expect Big Crowd.

Indianapolis, Jan. 18.—Leo K. Fesler, secretary of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, is receiving a large number of reservations for the dinner which will be given for the editors on the evening of Jan. 25. The number of plates is limited to 500, and it looks as if all will be taken. The dinner will take the place of the usual Indiana Republican love feast, and Republicans generally are invited.

Victim of Flames.

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 18.—Hugh Stone, aged fifty, of Elkhart, is believed to have been burned in a fire that destroyed the home of Mrs. Chas. Bothwell, his sister. It was known he was in the house when Bothwell, his wife, two sons and a daughter were awakened by flames, and barely escaped. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A Boy and a Gun.

Washington, Ind., Jan. 18.—"You can't hit the side of a barn," said a son of Samuel Simmons, as his brother fired a bullet through the barn door, piercing the breast of their father, who stood inside the barn. The elder Simmons may die.

Eight-Wheel Water Wagon Is Latest Thing for Resolutionists

A very brilliant suggestion has just been made here and if it can be put into practical effect it is declared more good will be accomplished along temperance lines than any movement ever started in the past says the Columbus Republican. The suggestion in short is to adopt the Octoauto principal for the water wagon and make the aforesaid water wagon easy riding. This being done it will be a comparatively easy matter for any one to stick on.

For years and years it has been the custom of many men to swear off drinking on the first day of a new year. This sudden stop of consuming alcohol is generally called getting on the water wagon. It is pretty well understood the water wagon is perhaps the roughest riding vehicle in the world. It starts out easy enough but the road it travels makes the journey one continual bump and jolt after a few hours.

Many men who have climbed on the water wagon with the best intentions in the world have literally been jolted off by the rough roads and the peculiar construction of the vehicle itself. The ordinary water wagon upon which New Year resolutions makers ride has no springs of any kind. It has steel tires so there is no resiliency there. Its steering gear is so arranged that it takes corners sharply and often throws off passengers in this manner—especially if there is a saloon on the corner.

Now all this trouble may be obviated if M. O. Reeves, who invented the Octoauto, can be persuaded to loan his patent rights for use on the water wagon. The Reeves construction is to attach eight wheels to the ordinary automobile. The eight wheels take the ordinary jolt and jar of a rough road. Mr. Reeves declares—and those who have ridden in his machine bear him out—that his construction is the easiest riding in the world. Consequently if he can be induced to apply his attention to water wagons he will have solved the riddle of the liquor question.

With the Octowater-wagon there rough the roads may be. The men who make resolutions not to drink any more will go over the bumpiest roads in the eight wheeler and hardly feel a particle of discomfort. It is falling off the water wagon that damages the New Year resolutions. Making the wagon easy riding will keep the passengers on. Hence the plea for the eight wheeled construction. It is up to Mr. Reeves to bring about the revolution.

Committee Will Investigate The Laying Power of American Hen

With the price of butter, eggs and milk steadily rising, blame for the high cost of living is being laid upon the fear of legislation, the slothfulness of the great American hen, and the growing shrewdness of the bulwark of the nation, sometimes as the farmer.

The farmer, it is said, has sensed the commercial fact that by with-

Your Money Back if You Are Not Satisfied with the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 2 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Rushville only at our store—The Rexall Store. Lytle's Drug Store.

holding eggs from the market he can cash in on the rising prices. Moreover, it is the general impression that western dealers, fearing legislation against the cold-storage warehouses have disposed of their stock from time to time when the market seemed favorable.

The greatest blame of all, however, is being visited on the graceful shoulders of the American hen. Certainly that bird is not laying her usual number of eggs this winter. It may be because she had a very hot summer, or it may be that she has become infected with the microbe of fear of legislation, just like other business interests.

In the New York supply the shipment of eggs has fallen off nearly half a million dozen, as compared with the same week the previous year. It is perfectly plain that the American hen is not doing her duty. She kicks around the barnyard cackling brokenly but it is all talk and no action.

Probably congress has a solution for this difficulty, as it has for all others. A committee probably will be appointed to investigate the laying power of the American hen. Something is back of the present dearth of eggs and its solution will be of great benefit to the country. In all fairness, however there should be no inquiry unless the members of congress are prepared to hear representative hens from all parts of the country. There should be no legislation without representation. Congress, which is an expert in cackling, will have no difficulty in understanding the hen's argument.

There is Now a Way to Escape These Skin Torments.

People sometimes say, "Well, that new remedy of yours, Saxon Salve, may cure recent cases of eczema, but I doubt if it will help me for I have had eczema a long time."

The fact is, Saxon Salve was devised as much for chronic skin troubles as for acute cases, and it is equally effective, though usually the chronic cases are more stubborn.

Numbers of cases right around here could be cited, showing that Saxon Salve is exactly the remarkable soothing and curative remedy for skin diseases that we claim.

The itching is stopped in a few moments after the first application, and improvement is seen in a few days.

All humors and disorders of the skin, whether scaly, crusted or in the very first stages, usually yield to Saxon Salve promptly. If it does not, in your case your money is returned. F. B. Johnson & Co., druggists, Rushville, Ind.

OVERLAND MODEL 59T

The 1912 Overland Car

Show me where there is anything to compete with it, regardless of price or quality. This is, to the man that knows automobile values, these cars at these low values speak for themselves. They need no explanation. But to the man who has never owned a Car, and is now in the market for one, we simply ask him to compare it with others, and the economy of buying an Overland will be apparent, even to a novice.

Our line this year is comprised of 10 Models—variety enough so that none need to look elsewhere, and they are thoroughly high grade automobiles—large, roomy, and as well built as any of the highest price cars on the market. They could be more elaborately made, but no better.

TO ILLUSTRATE BY SLEIGHT-OF-HAND

Dr. U. S. Clutton of Indianapolis Will Talk to Boys Next Sunday Afternoon on "Habit."

THAT "HAS BEENS" QUARTET

Extensive preparations are being made for an interesting and instructive program for the Boys Big Meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 in the First Presbyterian church. Dr. U. S. Clutton of Indianapolis has been very active in boys work for a number of years and is now at the head of the "Boys Scouts" of Indianapolis. His subject "Habit" when illustrated by his sleight-of-hand tricks, brings his subject very forcibly before his hearers and it is conceded to be one of the very best lectures in the line of boys work.

The boys and young men are taking a very active part in the program and are going to have several surprises for the "old boys" who are just as welcome as the younger ones provided they do not crowd out the younger men. Do you know what happened to the little boy who won fishing on Sunday? The "Has Beens" quartet will tell you all about it.

AMUSEMENTS

The Portola will show the usual two reels of pictures tonight. "Vandetta" is the title of an extra good Pathe drama. The other picture is a Vitagraph comedy, "Who's Who." The film is said to be very comical and tells a novel story.

The Princess offers tonight as the first picture an excellent war drama, "The Empty Saddle." It is an Essanay film and is said to be very sensational and realistic. The other is a great western comedy, "Bill Bumper's Bargain." Monday and Tuesday nights the attraction will be the great Biograph picture, "The Battle."

Purchases Mabel W. in Greensburg For $1,000—at Cambridge City.

Curt Gosnell, well known here, where he trained last season, but who is now living in Cambridge City, yesterday bought Mabel W., 2:14½, of Tilly & Harecourt of Greensburg for $1,000. The mare was trained by Kelly Smith last summer and negotiated a mile in 2:11 although she was never marked that fast. The mare was started eight times last season and won five firsts, two seconds and a third. Kelly Smith, it will be remembered, is the trainer who brought out "Duke of Wellington," the "plowhorse pacer," who was purchased for forty dollars and later sold for a handsome sum. The "Duke" won a race at the local fair a few years ago.

Gilbert's Return

The little town of Bentonville was gayly decorated in honor of the celebration of home-coming week. Elaborate preparations had been completed to welcome the return of the sons and daughters of the little inland town. From the letters received it seemed as though the guests were as glad to come back as they had been eager to depart.

"Have you heard that Gilbert Gibson is coming in his private car?" asked Cicely of her friend Babette as they walked down the main street.

"Its nearly ten years since he was here," returned Babette. "Now that he is so successful and called 'The Merchant King of Rochester,' I wonder if he will remember many of his old school friends?"

"Didn't you correspond with him? I always thought he favored you," inquired Cicely.

"Yes, Gilbert was my first sweetheart, but I wasn't his last, for of course he is very popular now. Little did we dream then that this awkward youth would rise after failure and defeat to achieve such unparalleled success."

"I never knew anyone so conscientious, with such a sense of integrity and uprightness. It kept him all his life from having a good time," said Cicely.

"He was so interesting that you liked him in spite of his plain, uncomely appearance. He could discuss even the weather in the most absorbing way and had the greatest aptitude to say the right thing at the right time. No one has interested me half as much since," said Babette. "I don't deny I have encouraged others."

"I presume it will be a glad day when you meet again," said Cicely wondering how many admirers her friend had had in the interval.

"It may be 'Out of sight, out of mind.' I haven't heard from him in years. Really I haven't given him much thought except when I've heard of his fortune."

"It's just as well, Babette. For he told me when I was East, in a burst of confidence, that the seal ring he wore was his mascot and though the girl who gave it to him was most likely married, he never would part with his good luck ring."

"Then that was the reason why I never heard from him. You know I was engaged to a young man from Washington, but we agreed to disagree after a few weeks. I wish, Oh, how I wish, I had that little seal ring now."

"Where is it?"

"I gave it away ages ago to my little niece who lost it, and I never took the trouble to look for it."

"If it's only a plain ring, why don't you buy another exactly like it?" suggested the fertile brain of Cicely.

"What a splendid idea!" Let's stop at the jeweler's right now."

Babette bought the ring and returning home was told a young man was waiting to see her. Quickly opening the little box she slipped the ring upon her finger.

"Gilbert!" she exclaimed with her heart leaping with joy and thankfulness that she had anticipated his visit.

"Welcome, I am so pleased to see you. You have improved so much in looks I would scarcely have recognized you," said Babette, grasping his hand.

"You haven't changed for the better; that would be an impossibility," he said, gazing admiringly at her willowy form and beautiful face. "The years that have flown by have done nothing to mar your exquisite beauty and grace. I find that I've been laboring under a delusion for years. I thought you were married."

"No, I'm heart whole and fancy free," though most of the crowd we went with are married and some of them waste their time wondering why I'm still single," she answered giving him an arch look which spoke volumes and saying to herself, "why don't he notice the ring?"

"You still wear that poor little ring, I see. Have you never taken it off. Mine is still on my finger, even though I thought you loved another."

"Gilbert!" answered the girl a little ashamed of her duplicity.

"I can't believe that I deserve this immeasurable boundless joy, but just as in the past this little ring has been a constant reminder of you, so I'll have perpetually in my mind only the thought of future welfare and felicity."

The young man's face beamed with pleasure at her words.

"If I had the least idea that you cared to see me, I certainly would have come from the uttermost portions of the earth. You have held me superlatively happy. Others have fawned upon me for my wealth, but you it is alone who was capable of the highest form of affection. You cared for me regardless of the power which comes with affluence."

"Dearest," he added tenderly, "is the inscription engraved on your ring worn out?"

"No, dear," answered Babette hastily drawing her hand away, "every day for ten years I've read those words." But to herself she declared, "there's no inscription on the ring now. I even forgot there ever was one, but there surely will be one tomorrow."

LIQUOR DISPENSERS CHANGE THEIR PLEA

They Admit Infractions of the Regulation Law.

Michigan City, Ind., Jan. 18.—Rude Kusky and Joseph Harris, who were indicted last November when the superior court grand jury made a sweeping investigation of liquor law violations here, withdrew their pleas of not guilty and pleaded guilty to selling liquor during prohibited hours and to allowing persons other than members of their families in their saloons on Sundays. On the first charge they were fined $100 and costs and on the second $50 and costs. Both men are still under indictment for perjury for denying before the grand jury the charges to which they pleaded guilty.

UNUSUAL SITUATION

Congress Will Be in Session During Time of National Conventions.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Both Democratic and Republican leaders in the house of representatives agree that there is little likelihood of the congress adjourning before August next. It was said that this probability largely influenced the Democrats in choosing Baltimore as the national convention city. The Republicans will have a more awkward situation to deal with in holding their convention in Chicago with the congress in session. The condition of the congress being in session during national convention periods has not existed since 1892.

ZEMO MAKES ASTONISHING ECZEMA CURES

"We Prove It." Every day ZEMO gives relief and cures men, women and children in every city and town in America whose skins are on fire with torturing ECZEMA rashes and other itching, burning, scaly, and crusted skin and scalp humors. ZEMO and ZEMO (ANTISEPTIC) SOAP, two refined preparations will give you such quick relief that you will feel like a new person.

We will give you three reasons why we recommend and endorse ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP for all skin and scalp eruptions.

1st. They are clean, scientific preparations that give universal satisfaction and are pleasant and agreeable to use at all times.

2d. They are not experiments, but are proven cures for every form of skin or scalp affections whether on infants or grown persons.

3d. They work on a new principle. They do not glaze over the surface, but they penetrate to the seat of the trouble and draw the germ life from underneath the skin and destroy it. In this way a complete cure is effected in any case of SKIN OR SCALP ERUPTION.

Charles Durham, Lovington, Ill., has succeeded in finding a positive cure for bed wetting. "My little boy wet the bed every night clear through on the floor. I tried several kinds of kidney medicine and I was in the drug store looking for something to help him when I heard of Foley Kidney Pills. After he had taken them two days we could see a change and when he had taken two thirds of a bottle he was cured. That is about six weeks ago and he has not wet the bed since." F. B. Johnson & Co.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

GETS THE GOOD OUT OF FOOD.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.

Eating serves a double purpose—the giving of pleasure, the keeping up of strength. Ill-cooked food reduces both to a minimum—hence the proverb: "God sends meat and the devil sends cooks." Possibly his satanic majesty now and again nods. It must have been in such a somnolent interval that he let M. Soyer's system of paper bag cooking get by him. For unquestionably it is in the way of reducing ill-cooking at least one-half. Thereby it will help to feed fat all the nations of the earth.

The use of cooking is to change the nature of food substances, making them at once better tasting and more digestible. Heat works by developing flavors and transforming substances. Its most important office is, however, to break down fiber, animal and vegetable, to such a degree as to render it easily digestible. If it is to do this it must be properly applied. That is to say, gently, regularly.

Simple food, well cooked, is the foundation of happiness—and paper bag cooking means good cooking.

It follows naturally that the paper bag is especially useful in preparing food for delicate persons, and growing children. Here follow some dishes that have helped build up weak and wasted people. That they will be likewise good for children, especially delicate ones, admits of no doubt.

Pigeon Roast.—Take a squab, a squab-chicken as small as possible, or a quail, dress it whole, stuff lightly with toasted bread crumbs, adding a raisin or two, or shreds of tart apple. Season very lightly inside before stuffing. Rub a little more salt outside, but only a little. Rub also with soft butter, not melted, and dredge very lightly with flour. Then wrap in bacon, sliced as thin as possible, and put into a buttered bag with a half teaspoonful of water. Seal and cook in a hot oven twenty to thirty minutes, depending on the size. The squab-chicken may require thirty-five minutes.

Shredded Wheat and Tomatoes.—Pour upon each shredded wheat biscuit required a teaspoonful of melted butter. Lay the buttered biscuit in a well-buttered bag and pile upon them thick slices of peeled tomatoes, well seasoned with sugar, salt, black and red pepper. Seal and cook for ten minutes. Serve on hot plates. A pleasing variant for children is to use instead of tomatoes, bananas peeled, cut in cubes, covered with sugar and lemon juice, and cooked for eight minutes. This can be served with cream.

PAPER BAG COOKED DISHES FOR INVALIDS AND CHILDREN.

By Nicholas Soyer, Chef of Brooks' Club, London.

Sweetbread Mackenzie.—Blanch and trim a good-sized sweetbread, make a little mirepoir of vegetables, paying attention to the color of the vegetables, and seeing that they do not brown. Cut the sweetbread across the center, but do not halve it. Pound one ounce of pistachios and lay them in the slit of the sweetbread. Cover the sweetbread with the prepared vegetables and place in a well-buttered bag. Cook in a slow oven for thirty minutes. Dish the sweetbread, place the other ingredients in a fine sieve and lightly press the gravy, through, on to the sweetbread.

Chicken Quenelles.—Take the breast of one fowl, add a pint of white sauce, and a piece of butter the size of a walnut. Pound well, mix in one egg, pass through a hair sieve. Place in a basin, add a quarter pint of cream and stir well. Form into small quenelles with a spoon, place in a buttered bag, lay carefully on the broiler, and cook for six minutes in a hot oven.

Chicken and Rice Tea.—Chop up half a raw chicken, wash a tablespoonful of rice in cold water, and mix with the chicken. Wash a teaspoonful of pearl barley, and add with a quarter-pint of cold water. Put all together into a small paper bag, and cook forty to forty-five minutes in a slow oven.

Filletted Poultry for Invalids.—Mince fine a carrot, turnip and onion, add a little minced ham, a pinch of sugar and salt, and lay at the bottom of a small well-buttered bag. Slice the breast of a fowl—cooked—lay the slices upon the prepared vegetables, which were cooked before mincing, sprinkle with oiled butter, seal and cook six minutes in a slow oven. Dish the fillets, put the vegetables in a sieve and press the gravy from them over the fillets.

Beef Tea.—Put one pound of beef steak in a paper bag, seal it, and cook for twelve minutes in a moderate oven. Open the bag on a dish and you will find natural gravy about the meat. Cut up the steak, press out all juice from it, strain, season to taste, and serve at once in a hot cup. For chicken tea, cut up half a fresh fowl, break the bones with a chopper, put in bag with two tablespoonfuls cold water, seal and cook forty-five minutes in a slow oven. Strain into a hot cup, season and serve.

EDDIE GUERIN AGAIN IN HANDS OF POLICE

Man With An International Record Taken at Glasgow.

Glasgow, Jan. 18.—On a charge of loitering in a hotel with intent to steal, a man was arrested here last night who claims he is "Eddie" Guerin, the so-called American criminal, although an English judge once decided that he was a British subject. The man has not yet been identified.

New York, Jan. 18.—Eddie Guerin's name was known all over the world through his sensational escape from the French penal colony at Devil's Island, where he was serving a life sentence. He was aided by friends in New York, who furnished the money.
He was afterward arrested in London,
but Great Britain refused to extradite him to France, the judge holding that he was a British subject. He got into several scrapes after this and was shot on two different occasions, once by a woman and again by a man named Charles Smith. He opened a cigar stand in London and declared he had been converted, but was arrested on several occasions afterward and was supposed to have been concerned in several big robberies. The last heard of him he was running a shop in London and it was then thought that he had a hand in the theft of the "Mona Lisa" from the Paris Louvre.

Guerin, who is catalogued in Inspector Byrne's book as a notorious western criminal, got his life sentence on Devil's Island for robbing the American Express company in Paris of $50,- 000 and for a previous robbery of $50,- 000 from the Bank of Lyons. He escaped in 1905 and came to New York, where he remained for a short time
and then returned to England.

HOT ON TRAIL

Husband Gets Search Warrant For Fleeing Wife and Missing Securities.

Reno, Nev., January 18.—When it was said search warrants sworn out by the husband were obtained for the purpose of discovering securities, said to be worth $443,000, which the wife was supposed to have in her baggage, the true reason for the exciting game of hide and seek played by Eugene
C. Batten and his wife, of New York, came out.

Mrs. Batten was the wife of David
L. Rothschild, the embezzling banker, and the securities were said to have been given to her the day before the failure of the Federal bank. The search for the concealed wealth follows the beginning of divorce proceedings by Batten. Instead of leaving town Tuesday as was supposed, Mrs.
Batten remained with friends she met through mutual acquaintances. These friends conduct a store, which was among the places searched by Batten and the chief of police without result.

In her hurried travels from her hotel to the store, and then to the home of her friends, Mrs. Batten carefully carried a valise, which is supposed to contain the securities.

Mrs. Batten departed last evening for the home of Louis Kessel, her father, in New York. "I have nothing whatever to say," was her only reply to several efforts to secure statements from her.

Revision Bill on the Ways.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The bill to revise the iron and steel schedules of the Payne-Aldrich law will be passed by the house next week. The bill will provide for free iron ore and reduce the schedules on manufactured articles 30 to 50 per cent, the duties to be ad valorem instead of specific.

TROOPS READY TO GO TO CUBA

This Government Prepared for Any Emergency.

INTERVENTION LAST RESORT

Washington Makes Plain the Fact That Armed Interference in the Quarrels of the Islanders Will Be Taken Only When Moral Suasion Is Found to Be Ineffectual in Averting What Threatens to Be Another Revolution.

Washington, Jan. 18.—On its note to Cuba warning President Gomez that he must maintain the law or expect a third intervention, the state department is standing pat. Secretary Know-lands it is now up to Cuba and that the state department will have an answer to its note in the steps taken to remedy the existing political situation.

Meanwhile all arrangements have been made by the war department so that a force of 5,000 can be dispatched to Cuba on a few hours' notice. Troops along the Atlantic coast have been designated which will be sent to Cuba in case it becomes necessary to occupy the island. Commanders have been notified that they must be prepared to move their forces according to plans drawn up long ago. There is no expectation at the war department that such will be necessary. This view also prevails at the state department. Unofficial reports received from Havana are taken to indicate that the Cuban government and people understood the purport of the note presented by Minister Beaupre. Word was received that President Gomez had met the leaders of all the factions for the purpose of discussing the situation and that all the warring elements reached an agreement to put aside their interests and ambitions for the welfare of Cuba and to give no cause whatsoever for the intervention of the United States. It was agreed that the kindly admonition of the United States had come at a most opportune time, and had averted the ruin of Cuba which was imminent.

The reasons for the presentation of the note have been more fully explained at the state department. It was felt at the department and at the White House that fairness to Cuba demanded that this government remind the Cuban government of its responsibilities before it was too late for any remedy but American intervention. It was considered that it would be more fair to the Cubans to warn them of the seriousness of the situation from the American point of view in time to give President Gomez and his administration an opportunity to straighten things out.

Unofficial advices received at the department indicate that at least a portion of the Cuban people appreciate this view of the situation and welcome the action of the United States. President Gomez and members of his administration, together with the more substantial business element of the Cuban people, are understood to coincide with this view. It is well known at the state department that there is a very strong sentiment among the business men of Cuba in favor of the annexation of the island by the United States. It was most clear at the state department that no such policy is contemplated in that quarter and that intervention is to say the least far from being desired.

Gomez Is Confident.

Havana, Jan. 18.—President Gomez in an interview says: "Undoubtedly the news from Cuba has been greatly exaggerated. This has caused the friendly note from the American government. I depend upon the patriotism of the Cuban people, who will not forget their duty. I am certain the veterans will listen to my advice and, in any event, I have sufficient means at my command to maintain order."

Banker's Bride Well Decked Out.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—Nearly a quart of diamonds, pearls, emeralds and rubies in necklaces, tiaras, rings, brooches and bracelets are wedding gifts to Mrs. Oliver Cromwell, a "million-dollar bride," who today wedded Edward T. Stotesbury, a millionaire Philadelphia banker.

Cardinal O'Connell Enroute Home.

Naples, Jan. 18.—Cardinal O'Connell and his suite sailed last evening on which is due to arrive in Boston Monday, Jan. 29.

CHARLES W. MORSE

Former New York Banker
Is Seriously Ill in Prison.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Charles W.
Morse, the convicted New York banker, who is now a federal prisoner at Atlanta, may be released within the next few days. In view of his critical condition it is generally expected here that President Taft will grant a commutation of Morse's sentence soon.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL AT DUNNING BURNED

Attendants Have Trouble Controlling Frenzied Patients.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—The emergency hospital at Dunning was burned almost to the ground while firemen, policemen, attendants and nurses battled furiously with frenzied insane patients.

Supposed to have ignited from a defective flue on the top floor of the main wing, the flames gradually ate their way downward and four hours after the fire was discovered virtually all of a three-wing building, four and five stories high, was in ruins. So far as is known no lives were lost.

During the progress of the fire
Thomas Edgar, steward of the institution, had a battle for life on a bridge connecting two of the wings, four stories in the air, with two insane patients.

In the face of what promised to be the most disastrous fire in years, it was the presence of mind and heroism of the women that saved the situation.

A woman physician sounded the fire drill, argued, entreated and even beat the patients into line in order that their lives might be saved. Another woman physician, who within three weeks was on trial under charges of inefficiency, led another line of unwilling and panic-stricken patients from the blazing building to safety.

PRESIDENT A PRISONER

Paraguayan Revolutionists Seem to Hold the Upper Hand.

Buenos Aires, Jan. 18.—There has been stiff fighting in the streets of Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, between the adherents of President Lib-erato Rojas and the revolutionaries.
Many were killed on both sides. The insurgents, however, are still in control of the situation and all attempts by the government troops to rescue President Rojas, who has been a prisoner in their hands since Monday, have proved unsuccessful.

Broke Even With Iceman.

geon, is dead. He was born at Sagua again has given substantial recognition large number of persons who have and they have raped their reward by bringing more business to Plymouth. Besides they received a good interest on their investment.

Another instance is recalled in the case of a certain piano factory which was all but located here once. The company inquired if its negotiable paper would be handled here, and when it found there was little hope, they sought other cities. That factory located in a nearby city because the men of that city went after it and told the owners they would handle all of their paper, that they wanted the factory and were willing to stand by it and lending it a helping hand. That city has thrived and so has the factory and Rushville lost by its foolish and too conservative views. Bue there's still a chance.

CAUSES A VARIED LOT OF COMMENT

handed. He declared that it was a difficult matter for a police force to prevent gambling, however, without the assistance of people who assert they are in favor of law and order.

This Democrat averred that juries in the circuit court are often to blame for the small number of convictions on gambling charges. He said that men who alleged to be moral and law-abiding citizens would sit on a jury and find a man charged with gambling not guilty. He said they would come out of the jury room and say they believed the man guilty but he was not proved so. This man declared vehemently, "Why, if a jury believes him guilty, does he not vote that way?"

This Democrat said he knew gambling was carried on here now because he is acquainted with professional gamblers who have no known means of earning an honest living. He pointed out that they do not gamble among themselves, but catch the gullible ones, and that is where the harm is worked.

NEW INDUSTRIAL ERA IS IN SIGHT IN RUSHVILLE

them agree to pay six per cent interest.

The three institutions would not only help themselves by obtaining a greater capital to expand, but they would interest the people of Rush county vitally in the concern and make them a part of it. They realize that they can not grow as they would like to without more money. They have to have currency to pay their current expenses while they are doing a greater business.

An example is cited in the case of Arbuckle & Company, which the other day turned down a large order simply because it did not have enough capital to operate the plant until the order could be completed and the payment for it be received. The result was the contract had to be subdivided among other foundries under the name of Arbuckle & Co.

It is authoritatively stated that a local furniture factory in its earlier days once had an indebtedness of $60,000 and had hardly money enough to pay its employees. The company had money borrowed from its men working in the factories, so it is said. But the company stayed on its feet, bridged over until its large orders were settled for and was able to pay off its indebtedness and still gain thereby.

There is an instance of a concern in Plymouth, a town of eleven hundred people. The institution started on a small foundation and continued to interest local investors until it has a plant which is doing a $200,000 business annually. The firm has been built up wholly by the local investors.

STANDS PAT ON HIS POSITION

"The police seem very much pleased with me after the interview, but it is seemingly strange to me that the well pleased officials should almost immediately turn and strike back at me with the venom of a rattlesnake. In my original interview in the Daily Republican I stated only a set of facts and conditions that existed under my administration in Rush county and assumed the responsibility of making excuses to my constituents for this being so, but I assume all responsibility of the nefarious conditions as exist now and if I clean it up I should get the credit. It is a herculean task and like Hercules, if I clean out the Augean Stables of corruption and cheat, all hats should come off to Dennis.

"I wish to state that my work is progressing. Last night the man I had out watching the gambling dens, at my own expense, reported that he saw a peculiar kind of furniture being moved out the back door of a certain place and was hurriedly loaded on a wagon and taken to some unknown part of the city. I am wise to the affairs of the world and if the public knows it is likely to be arrested while playing poker, it will not visit these houses. Gamblers can not live very long on playing among themselves as there are no producers among the lot. Thus it is necessary for them to look outside for a living and if the live ones are afraid to show up, the game is unprofitable and the jig is up. So you see gambling may be stopped without the arrest of a single person, by showing that you are in dead earnest. Now, if it is a joke, who is it on? Now, if it is ridiculous, who is ridiculous?"
